

SAMPLE FOR SHAVING PRODUCT

Subject: Here's how to razor down  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the time you spend shaving with 'SHAVING PRODUCT'...

Dear Modern Man,

Finished with conventional throw-away shaving products?

Introducing the first and only manual beard trimming technology—the grooming alternative that's taking the global market by storm.

This isn't your grandfather's manual shaver.

It's a radical, compact solution engineered for the modern man.

Durable and lightweight, this grooming essential doesn't need replacing x5 a month.

Moreover...

It does not compromise on quality and protects you against irritation, cuts, and scratches.

Imagine a skin-friendly shaving routine you can manage in 30 seconds.

WITHOUT worrying about the tidy-up from collecting hair.

Something that...

Eliminates all cumbersome activities and messiness with NO disposable OR consumable parts.

And...

Can be carried in your pocket, weighing LESS than your phone.

The only thing that should be maintained is your facial hair, not the tool you use to do it!

- This is NOT a traditional manual shaver from the 20th century.
- This does NOT need to be used with mirrors, products, or water.

- This does NOT need to be charged right before that important meeting first thing in the morning.

A simple method for getting your shaving DONE quickly and effortlessly.

And it could be yours today.
